

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED UNIVERSITY REGULATION AMENDMENT

FSU-3.005

Academic Honor Policy

The purpose of the proposed rulemaking is to amend the policy which had been adopted by reference as a regulation. The entire text of the formerly referenced policy will now be adopted fully as the regulation. The changes affect both procedures and substance based upon review and recommendations by students, faculty and administration.

Significant changes include:

- clarifying language and update ding terms and titles
- incorporating action on social media as within scope
- prohibits change of grading to S/U in disputed for challenged coursework
- specific reference to application of the student conduct Code for false information
- outcomes are part of student disciplinary record
- specifically includes graduate work
- Defines “educational activities”
