

6C2R-2.007 Use of Campus Facilities.

(1) Introduction. The Florida State University is a public institution. Consequently, there exists a need to specify the guidelines for use of University facilities for events other than the normal University functions of teaching, research, service and administration. Use of campus facilities is decided through the use of campus committees, however, final authority for use of all campus facilities lies with the President or designee.

(2) Scope. University space and facilities will be used first for the official and regular purposes and functions of the University. The University may extend the use of specified space and facilities to members of the University community or to the general public subject to the provisions outlined within this regulation.

(3) Definitions.

(a)- (g) No Change

(h). “Camping” is defined as use of a vehicle, tent, or other shelter, and/or bedding with the intent to stay overnight.

(4) - (8) No Change

(9). Use of Campus Lands; Camping.

(a) Tents or other temporary structures are prohibited on lands of the Florida State University campus except when used in connection with activities of academic or administrative units of the University.

(b) Tents or other temporary structures may be erected on University property by academic or administrative units only for activities directly related to the mission of the unit and only after first obtaining written approval of the Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration or designee, who shall consider time period, space, traffic, and other safety and aesthetic factors.

(c) Student Government and recognized student organizations may secure approval for use of tents or temporary structures for activities described above by request to the Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration or designee, who shall consider time period, space, traffic, and other safety and aesthetic factors

(d) Camping is prohibited on lands of the Florida State University campus except when such camping is in connection with an official activity of the University, such as an activity of an academic or administrative unit. Prior written approval for such camping must be granted by the Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration or designee taking into consideration time period, space, traffic, and other safety and aesthetic factors along with the health, safety and welfare of the participants, the University community, and guests of the University.
