

Proposed Florida State University Regulation 6C2-4.072, Self-insurance Program

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED UNIVERSITY REGULATION 6C2-4.072, SELF-INSURANCE PROGRAM

Proposed Florida State University Regulation 6C2-4.072 would authorize the establishment of The Florida State University College of Medicine Self-Insurance Program for the purpose of providing general and professional liability insurance protection for The Florida State University Board of Trustees and other persons and entities as provided by law and as authorized by the Board of Trustees or the Self-Insurance Program Council. The proposed Regulation establishes The Florida State University College of Medicine Self-Insurance Program Council, provides that the self-insurance program is to be administered by the Council, and lists the Council's powers and duties. The proposed Regulation provides that the Board of Trustees would oversee the operation of the self-insurance program through the process of consideration and approval of the program's annual budget, and through the annual review of a post-audit of the program's financial accounts.

AUTHORITY FOR THE PROPOSED UNIVERSITY REGULATION

The authority for the proposed regulation is as follows: Florida Board of Governors Regulation Development Procedure for State University Boards of Trustees, and Sections 1004.24, 768.28, 766.101, and 766.106, of the Florida Statutes.
