

~~FSU 2.02417—Refunds of Tuition and Fees.~~

~~(1)——Students who officially withdraw from the university prior to the end of drop/add will be eligible for a refund of 100 percent of tuition assessed, adjusted for waivers and any other outstanding charges.~~

~~(2)——Students will be eligible for a refund for a situation in which the university determines it is in substantial, prejudicial error. The amount of a payment in excess of the adjusted assessment may be refunded.~~

~~(3)——Students who drop a course(s) without tuition and fee liability after their tuition and fees have been paid will be eligible for a refund in extenuating circumstances of extreme financial burden, significant university error, documented medical emergency, call to active medical emergency or what would be considered an act of god or force majeure under standard contract law. Any amount in excess of the amount owed the university during the semester/term will be carried forward and may be applied against subsequent charges or may be refunded on request of the student. Any outstanding charges owed to the university will be deducted from eligible refunds and the balance will be issued as a refund to the student.~~

~~(4)——Students who have not received Federal financial aid and withdraw after the fifth (5th) day of the semester and prior to the end of the fourth (4th) week of the semester (or for summer~~ ~~sessions by the first twenty-five percent (25%) of the term) are eligible for a twenty-five percent (25%) refund of tuition and fees paid. After the end of the fourth (4th) week of classes, no further refunds shall be made except as follows:~~
