

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED UNIVERSITY REGULATION AMENDMENT

FSU-5.098 Textbook Adoption and Affordability

FSU-5.098 is being revised to conform with amendments to Board of Governors regulation on textbooks and instructional materials affordability and transparency. The revisions provide

- A definition of “materials”;
- Possible institutional initiatives to enable students to obtain the highest quality products at the lowest available price;
- The deadline for textbook and instructional material adoption;
- Additional criteria for textbook listings;
- Parameters for dual enrollment courses; and
- Requirements for review and attestation of review by the instructor of record, including that the Office of Faculty Development and Advancement is responsible for developing and implementing processes to ensure compliance with these requirements.

The title is changing to “Textbook and Instructional Materials Affordability and Transparency” to better reflect the revised content.
